

Yauneye Roy Okoroba

ABOUT ME

Aspiring programmer with a foundation in programming. A critical thinker eager to make significant contributions to a team. Dedicated to learning and development, open to new experiences, and eager to expand my knowledge while upholding morals. Strong sense of responsibility and ability to self-reflect.

ADDRESS

7228 Northampton Drive, Baton Rouge, LA

PHONE

(225) 495-5373

EMAIL

J01008002@students.jsums.edu
yauneye@gmail.com

EXPERIENCE

SEP 2023 - JAN 2024

Online Coding Instructor | EarlySTEMer

JUN 2019 - JUL 2019

Intern | Centre for Info Tech and Systems | University Of Lagos

Responsibilities: Taught multiple programming languages such as Python & HTML/CSS with practical exercises to children of various age groups. Job shadowed experienced tutors during online lectures and gained valuable insights to improve my methods. Implemented a new and improved grading system that ensured precise allocation of grades. Monitored/assessed students' progress.

EDUCATION

Jackson State University | Jackson, Mississippi | AUG 2024 - Present

Major: Computer Science | Bachelor of Science | Entry Level: Freshman

Member of W.E.B Du Bois Honors Harvey College | Awarded Provost Academic Scholarship | Served multiple community service hours with various organizations such as the PEARSON Foundation

The Ambassadors Schools | Ota, Ogun | SEP 2017 - JUL 2022

2019 Health Prefect - 9th Grade | Cambridge IGCSE: 6A* 1A

SKILLS

Technical Skills

Javascript
Python & C/C++
HTML/CSS

Soft skills

Collaboration & Teamwork
Adaptability
Problem-solving

ACTIVITIES

I've engaged in multiple online courses relating to my field of study ranging from Data Analytics to AI. Designed my website from scratch using HTML\CSS and other resources. I read novels of different genres and draw. Participated in charity visits to the less privileged. Currently working on obtaining a CompTIA A++ certification with online courses on Udemy.